

wife Frances E. Rice, who is also named as the Executrix ~~her~~ ^{thereof} in Exhibit "B".

Eighth. That the said Frances E. Rice, the wife of said Joshua A. Rice has filed her renunciation of any and all bequests made to ^{her} under the last will of said testator, and asks that she be allowed in lieu thereof her dower or legal right in the estate of her deceased husband, the said Joshua A. Rice, a duly certified copy of which said renunciation is filed herewith and marked Exhibit "G" and prayed to be taken and accepted as a part hereof.

Ninth. That the property described in Exhibits "D" and "E" are adjacent tracts of land ^{and} are farmed and considered, and was considered by the said Joshua A. Rice, as one tract, and that ~~it~~ would be to the advantage of your Complainant as well as to all the other creditors of said Joshua A. Rice to have said tracts of land sold as one tract, than to have them sold as separate and distinct properties.

Tenth. That your Complainant is informed and believes ^{and so charges} that said personal estate of the said Joshua A. Rice is not sufficient to discharge all the just debts due and owing by the said Joshua A. Rice at the time of his death; and that the personal estate now in the hands of the said Executrix ought to be applied to the payment of the claim of your Complainant and the other creditors of the said Joshua A. Rice, so far as the same will extend; and that any deficiency in said personal estate ought to be supplied by a sale of all, or such part as may be necessary, of the real estate of the aforesaid debtor.

Eleventh. That at the time of the death the said Joshua A. Rice left surviving him a widow, Frances E. Rice who resides at Charlesville, Md.; Roy J. Rice, Aaron F. Rice, Emory E. Rice, Arthur B. Rice, Ella M. Rice, and Goldie J. Rice, Infants, all of whom are living at Charlesville, Md.

And your Complainant prays for the following relief:-

1.- That said real estate of the said Joshua A. Rice, deceased
